Bank of America Master Teacher Award

Emporia State University established the Kansas Master Teacher awards in 1954. The awards are presented annually to teachers who have served the profession long and well and who also typify the outstanding qualities of earnest and conscientious teachers.

The university's Administrative Council originally developed the Kansas Master Teacher Award program in the early 1950s. Dr. Everett Rich, former chair of the English department, was the driving force behind the program.

The program was first discussed in 1952. Because of the illness and subsequent death of President David L. MacFarlane in 1953, nothing was done to establish the program until the following year. In 1954, with the support of Dr. Don Davis, the chair of the division of education, and the approval of the new president, John E. King, the first awards were made.

In the early days of the program, numerous faculty members and others connected with the college were involved in establishing policies and procedures. Dr. Davis added "Kansas" to the name. Rich suggested "distinguished," but that word was changed to "master." Ray Cremer, business manager, promoted a monetary award for the recipients, but Dr. King believed that watches were more appropriate, so watches were awarded. C.O. Wright, executive secretary of the Kansas State Teachers Association, suggested that local teacher associations or similar educational groups make the nominations. Dr. Rich coordinated publicity for the awards across the state.

The Kansas Master Teacher Award program expresses appreciation for the generosity of Bank of America. Since 1980, this Emporia bank has pledged over $100,000 to permanently endow the Kansas Master Teacher Awards. Bank of America and its senior officer, Carol Patterson, are committed to assisting Emporia State University in its efforts to excel.

Each year, local teacher associations and school faculties nominate candidates for the awards. In February, a committee representing educational organizations from across Kansas selects the winners.

The 2004 selection committee included: Sue Givens, United School Administrators; Tom Brumgardt, Kansas – NEA; Laura Kaiser, Kansas Congress of Parents; Wayne Engle, Kansas Association of School Boards; Patricia Williams, Kansas – American Association of University Women; Iris Van Meter, Kansas State Board of Education; Troy Peters, Kansas Association for Colleges of Teacher Education; Jill Jones, Kappa Delta Pi (student representative); Trish Weidert, Emporia, Greg Mittman, Valley Center, and Devra Parker, Medicine Lodge, recipients of the 2004 Master Teacher Endowed Chair.

A committee of Emporia State University faculty and administrators coordinates local arrangements. The committee includes: Lori Mann, Roy Mann, Tes Mehring, Sarah Stump, Sue Smith, Lucie Eusey, Carol Patterson (Bank of America representative), Boyce Baumgardner and Scott Waters, chairperson.

Information concerning the Kansas Master Teacher Award program is available on The Teachers College web site. Go to www.emporia.edu/teach/ and click on Kansas Master Teacher.

The William A. Black Kansas Master Teacher Endowed Chair

In 1984, the Black family of Broken Bow, Oklahoma, established an endowed chair for Kansas Master Teachers. Each year, this permanently endowed fund provides a stipend for two Kansas Master Teachers to spend part of a semester at Emporia State University.

The master teachers selected teach classes and work with students who plan careers in education. The endowed chair provides a valuable experience for Emporia State students and a meaningful opportunity for the master teachers.

The William A. Black Kansas Master Teacher Endowed Chair was established by Marea Belfield Black to honor the Black family's lifelong dedication to public education. The endowed chair is named for her husband, Dr. William Albert Black.

The late Dr. Black (pictured above) was born November 25, 1897, in Green County, Missouri. He received his bachelor's degree in 1926 and his master's degree in 1934 from Emporia State University. He received his PhD in philosophy, education, and psychology from the University of Colorado. Black was nationally known for establishing junior colleges and for his work in school finance and curricula.

During his career, he served as president of the Pueblo (CO) Junior College, director of junior colleges and curriculum for the state of Washington, and as the head of the department of education and philosophy at Pittsburg State University. In 1962, while at Pittsburg State, he received the Kansas Master Teacher Award.

Black married Marea Belfield on November 7, 1920. The Black's son, William Vincent Black, was born March 31, 1922, and the family moved to Broken Bow, Oklahoma on March 1, 1973. Dr. Black died on October 12, 1983. Emporia State University is deeply grateful to the Black family for this generous contribution.

Mary Van Dyke
Atchison

Mary Van Dyke sees herself as a “talent scout” for creative productions. “I aim to teach students to express themselves, value the freedom of individual effort, and take that giant leap along the path to self-awareness.”

Mrs. Van Dyke currently serves as district facilitator for gifted and talented K – 8 in Atchison. She has been very instrumental in obtaining numerous grants to fund creative and innovative projects for her students.

“Ever since I stepped into her classroom, new things have awaited me. I have been a part of many projects, from essays to dramas, each only making me a stronger learner and leader,” writes a student.

Mrs. Van Dyke has worked in Atchison since 1975. She was named Technology and Learning magazine’s Kansas Teacher of the Year in 1994 and Atchison Rotary Teacher of the Year in 1995. Mrs. Van Dyke has been widely recognized for her innovation and service.

Ken Garwick
Marlatt Elementary School
Manhattan

Ken Garwick has a love for music and a magical approach to teaching. He shares his love of music by using various songs to introduce topics of study. “When students are working individually on an assignment, music to help students relax is played quietly in the background.”

Mr. Garwick strives to make each day exciting for his students so they will want to be in school. He accomplishes this through both hands-on and minds-on activities. He likes to use a little magic in his classroom.

As a sixth-grade teacher at Marlatt Elementary school in Manhattan, he magically teaches students about economics and the importance of managing their money. His innovative teaching methods in economics earned him a State Farm Insurance Good Neighbor Teaching Award.

Mr. Garwick has also received multiple year recognition in “Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers.”

Connie Neneman
Wilroads Gardens Elementary
Dodge City

“I truly believe that good teachers evolve and our commitment to change is one of the most valuable resources that we have to offer to our students’ future,” writes Mrs. Connie Neneman, who has taught elementary school students in Kansas for over a decade. “I embrace the challenge to find the ‘common threads’ in effective teaching and apply them to teach the forever-changing student.”

Mrs. Neneman is an advocate for reading. “I believe reading is at the heart of everything we do. I try to promote it in every way possible.” She has written her own take-home books for her beginning readers, creating 30 alphabet books for K – 1, ESL and remedial instruction.

She has received recognition for her work with the Accelerated Reader Program. Mrs. Neneman is active in the Red Cross and Girl Scouts. Neneman also serves in many leadership capacities in her church.

Sandy Hardesty
Washburn Rural High School
Topeka

Mrs. Sandy Hardesty's love for teaching began as a small child. She fondly remembers playing school in her basement and assigning "lessons" to the neighborhood kids.

Her educational philosophy centers on students, not the material they are being taught. "Students need teachers who implement the best teaching practices. Not everyone learns the same way and I would be remiss in my duties if I expected my students to all fit into one category and did not adapt to their learning styles."

Mrs. Hardesty focuses on making learning interesting for her students. "Content is not always fun, but if I can engage them with humor and a positive attitude, the battle is halfway won."

For over a decade, Mrs. Hardesty has taught English and Social Studies in Topeka. She also serves as dance team assistant coach and has coached in several other areas. She was a recipient of the Washburn Rural Educator of Excellence Award.

Mrs. Hardesty is active in her community and participates in numerous community service projects.

Kathryn L. Reschke
Arbor Creek Elementary
Olathe

For more than 25 years, Mrs. Kathryn Reschke, a K – 6 school counselor in Olathe, has been helping people help themselves. “Every educator wants to make a difference in a life of a child, but I want to take it a step further; I want the child then to make a difference for others.”

Her teaching involves role playing and giving students real life situations that they often encounter as kids.

A former student writes: “Mrs. Reschke helped me to cope with change in a lot of ways. She makes me feel a variety of different feelings. She makes me happy when she takes time out of her schedule to award me for doing a good job.”

Mrs. Reschke is very involved in student activities. She is coordinator of the school’s Kindest Kansas Citian Reception and Red Ribbon Week activities.

Mrs. Reschke was named the outstanding school counselor of the year in the elementary division by the Kansas School Counselor Association.

Kimberly Thomas

McLean Science & Technology Elementary Magnet School
Wichita

Students in Mrs. Kimberly Thomas' fifth grade class learn through actively engaging in hand-on activities. "Students learn best when they are actively engaged and involved in their own learning. I incorporate higher-level thinking and inquiry skills into the projects in order to stretch each student's thinking process."

In her classroom, Mrs. Thomas encourages her students to develop unique talents and explore their individual learning interests and needs. "My greatest accomplishments in my classroom have been laying the foundations for building self-esteem and character in my students and for helping them to discover the joy of learning through independent problem solving."

Mrs. Thomas was named 2004 Kansas Regional Teacher of the Year and was named Values in Action National Educator of the Year.

Mrs. Thomas believes it is important to encourage her students early in their lives to volunteer in the community. She actively engages her elementary students through her own volunteer service. She is an active member of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the DUI Victim Center of Kansas, the Peace and Social Justice Center of South Central Kansas, and the American Red Cross.

Larry Wayland
Blue Valley West High School
Overland Park

Quoting from Helen Keller, Mr. Larry Wayland says, “Relationships are the cornerstone of all meaningful teaching.”

Mr. Wayland, a visual arts teacher at Blue Valley West High School, believes that teaching is a privileged position that demands humility as much as respect. “Students as human beings are all different, yet have great potential.”

In his 32 years in education, Mr. Wayland has held a wide variety of teaching and administrative positions, ranging from elementary school art teacher to high school department chairman, from art therapist to district public relations director.

West Gallery Hall, an innovative art gallery used to showcase student work, was the brainchild of Mr. Wayland. He was also instrumental in the West Works project, a high school art show. Wayland has been awarded the Blue Valley West Golden Apple Teacher Award on two occasions.
