

EMPORIA STATE UNIVERSITY

COACHING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR FUTURE COACHES! DUE 3.15.20

DO YOU WANT TO COACH?

Emporia State is a national leader in providing coaching education to future and current coaches!

ESU is one of only 12 universities in nation to be National Committee for the Accreditation of Coaching Education accredited (leading coaching education accreditation in U.S.)

Now, there are scholarships available for future coaches.

ABOUT ESU'S COACHING MINOR:

This program prepares current and future coaches to develop the total student-athlete physically, psychologically and with life skills.

- This minor is open to any student at ESU regardless of their major
- Students become American Sport Education Program certified and can legally coach in most states without a teaching license

APPLY FOR ONE OF FIVE $500 COACHING SCHOLARSHIPS!

Eligibility Requirements

- Plan to be a coach in the future
- Plan to minor in coaching at ESU
- Current high school senior
- Will graduate from a Kansas High School
- Current resident of the United States of America
- Grade point average of 2.5 or above

How to Apply

- Complete the scholarship application
- Write an essay
- Provide one reference from a coach, principal, athletic director, teacher or counselor
- Submit scholarship application by March 15, 2020

For more information and the scholarship application, visit: www.emporia.edu/coaching

Questions? Please contact Dr. Mark Stanbrough, Emporia State University Director of Coaching Education mstanbro@emporia.edu • 620.341.5399

